

Fox Development Corporation's support of individuals across Champaign and Urbana has touched countless lives in our community. From families facing housing crises to children battling serious illness to single parents trying to make ends meet, Fox Development Corporation has helped get families back on track, children healthy again, and single moms caught up allowing them to spend quality time with their kids.