Illinois Principals Association Names Lifetouch National School Studios 2008 Partners in Education Award

Peter Fox has been named by the Illinois Principals Association as the Lifetouch National School Studios 2008 Partners in Education Award winner. This award recognizes a member's outstanding effort in creating partnerships between schools, principals, associations and organizations. Criteria include:

- Demonstrates positive impact on education and advocacy for children.
- An active, online principal or assistant principal at the time of regional and state selection.
- Based upon a partnership initiated or supported by nominee.
- Partnership must be an ongoing project benefiting the nominee's school, the profession of education, the welfare of children, or the IPA and the partner .
- Partnership may be with but not limited to businesses, governmental or social agencies and other associations.

Peter Fox is being recognized for his large contribution to several Champaign district schools. In addition to his time, Mr. Fox has donated tablet computers, cleared out a courtyard and replanted it with prairie plants to aide in a science unit, and refurbished a classroom into an outstanding technology lab, complete with an LCD projector and a Numonics Board. He is truly an advocate of education.
